Estate Planning for Your Family's Future

Join Diane Agor of Estate Planning Group, an experienced litigation attorney and a mother of two young children. Diane understands the importance of planning for her family's future through carefully drafted legal documents. It is this personal and professional background that provides Diane with the knowledge and legal experience necessary to ensure her client's estate plan is based on careful consideration of her client's goals, and that the estate plan clearly and accurately reflects those goals.

- Welcome
- Reading of Collect
- Reading of Antitrust Statement
- HAIP Committee Reports
- Speaker: Diane Agor

Diane was born and raised in Ewa Beach on the island of Oahu. She attended the University of Hawaii at Manoa where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree. After completing her undergraduate studies, Diane attended Whittier Law School in California where she earned her Juris Doctor and graduated Magna Cum Laude. Upon returning to Hawaii, Diane served as a law clerk in the First Circuit Court and worked at various law firms in Honolulu focusing on civil litigation, including appeals before Hawaii's appellate courts and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.
