- Reading of Antitrust Statement
- HAIP Committee Reports
- Speaker: Michael Holl, Michael Holl & Associates

Michael Holl has been a licensed tax professional with the Internal Revenue Service for over 15 years. He is a well of information, always happy to share important tax tips. His current business, Michael Holl and Associates Inc. is one of the most reputable tax preparation firms in Hawaii, specializing in small business taxes. Having been an enrolled agent for so long, Michael has built a close relationship with tax officers and other key government faculty and departments. If you have liens or levies on your bank account and/or have accumulated penalties and interests with the state or federal government, Michael has the greatest chance of getting your tax problems resolved. When he is not preparing taxes or helping people plan their financial futures, you can find Michael conducting various tax awareness seminars and workshops for University of Hawaii, the Small Business Association and other various private businesses and groups, as well as a cadre speaker for the IRS.
